

K-Love serves me as a resident of my local community. I listen to it every day and would miss it tremendously if it were replaced by an LPFM broadcaster providing other programming. The commercial free Christian format is a blessing to me in and I believe many others as well. I believe it is in the public interest to have this type of programming available in the local communities on FM translators. Thank you very much...